In the 2009 animated version of the film A Christmas Carol, which features Jim Carrey, according to the death certificate shown in the film, in what year did Jacob Marley die? Jacob Marley died in 1836.

In the 2009 animated version of the film A Christmas Carol, which features Jim Carrey, how many years pass between Jacob Marley's death and his ghostly visit to Scrooge? Marley died seven years before his ghost visits Scrooge.

In the 2009 animated version of the film A Christmas Carol, what are the three Christmas ghosts that visit Scrooge? Ghost of Christmas Past, Ghost of Christmas Present, and Ghost of Christmas Yet to Come.

In the 2009 animated version of the film A Christmas Carol, what is the name of Scrooge's fiancee? Belle.

In the 2009 animated version of the film A Christmas Carol, what is the name of Bob Crachit's son? Tiny Tim

In the 2004 Christmas comedy Christmas with the Kranks, what country does the Kranks' daughter leave for on the day after Thanksgiving, causing them to decide to forego Christmas festivities? The Kranks' daughter heads off to Peru.

In the 2004 Christmas comedy Christmas with the Kranks, which two actors play the movie's leads, Mrs. and Mr. Krank? Jamie Lee Curtis and Tim Allen.

In the 2004 Christmas comedy Christmas with the Kranks, what do the Kranks decide to do instead of having a traditional Christmas? A ten-day Caribbean cruise.

In the 2004 Christmas comedy Christmas with the Kranks, who comes home for Christmas to surprise Luther and Nora? Their daughter Blair and her fiancé Enrique.

In the 2004 Christmas comedy Christmas with the Kranks, which adjective best describes the Christmas tree in Christmas with the Kranks: verdant, scraggly, or dying? Scraggly.

In the 2006 comedy release Deck the Halls, what is Steve Finch's profession (Matthew Broderick's character)? Steve Finch is an optometrist.

In the 2006 comedy release Deck the Halls, how much money does Buddy Hall (Danny DeVito's character) win by selling a car-lot owner one of his own cars? Buddy wins $3,000.00.

In the 2006 comedy release Deck the Halls, why are Buddy and Steve fighting? Buddy contends for Steve's "the Christmas Guy" title.

In the 2006 comedy release Deck the Halls, when the lights on Buddy's house appear not to work, what gets used instead? The crowd uses their cellphones as lights.

In the 2003 film Elf, what name is given to the human child Santa accidentally carries to the North Pole? The human child is named Buddy.

In the 2003 film Elf, what was the first rule of The Code of Elves? The Code of Elves' first rule is "Treat every day like Christmas."

In the 2003 film Elf, what is the make and model number of the "500 reindeer-powered" jet turbine engine that powers Santa's sleigh? Santa's super-sled engine was called "The Cringle 3000."

In the 2003 film Elf, the actor who plays the elf Ming Ming also appears in A Christmas Story. What is that actor's name? Peter Billingsley.

In the 2003 film Elf, what kind of company does Walter start? A publishing company.

Who wrote the picture book that was inspiration for the 2000 film How the Grinch Stole Christmas? Dr. Seuss.

Where does How the Grinch Stole Christmas take place? Inside of a snowflake.

In the 2000 feature film version of How the Grinch Stole Christmas, how many sizes does the Grinch's heart grow once he gets feelings? His heart grows three sizes.

In the 2000 feature film version of How the Grinch Stole Christmas, what does Cindy Lou Who give Max, the Grinch's dog? She passes him a plate of green eggs and ham.

In the 1996 Christmas comedy Jingle All the Way, what is the name of the action figure that the father in the film is desperately trying to obtain? Turbo Man.